Updated Street closures to impact Sixth Street Entertainment District

Beginning Friday, April 3, through Saturday, April 4, the 82nd Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays takes place in Austin. In an effort to assist with the flow of traffic alternative routes have been planned for commuters in the downtown area to make the public aware of possible street closures in the Sixth Street Entertainment District. APD will assess traffic flow throughout the weekend and make changes as necessary.

On Friday, April 3, streets closures will begin at 7 p.m. On Saturday, April 4, closures will begin at 2 p.m. APD warns that if your vehicle is in this area, it will be towed.

Closures will begin from Sixth Street between Brazos Street and the west frontage road of IH-35. In addition, towing will occur in the 500 and 600 blocks of Sabine, Red River, Neches, Trinity and San Jacinto Streets.

The following streets on the east side of IH-35 will be closed:

- Sixth Street, between the east frontage and San Marcos.
- Brushy Street, between Fifth and Seventh Streets.
- Fifth and Sixth Streets from the east frontage road to San Marcos.

The following ramps along IH-35 will be closed at 8 p.m. on Friday And 7 p.m. on Saturday:

- South bound IH-35 exit ramps at Eighth-Sixth Streets
- South bound IH-35 exit ramp at Cesar Chavez Street.
- North bound Sixth street exit ramp will be closed.

All streets will reopen in the early morning of Sunday, April 5, 2009. Motorists are encouraged to drive with caution when in the Sixth Street Entertainment District due to the high pedestrian traffic.
